The Homily

The Rev. Elizabeth Wigg-Maxwell

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People Form III

Please stand or kneel as you are able.

Father, we pray for your holy catholic church;

That we all may be one.

In the Anglican Cycle of Prayer, we pray for the Anglican Church of Central America. In the Diocesan Cycle of Prayer, we pray for the clergy, leadership, and people of Grace Church, Rutherford; and Church of the Good Shepherd, Ringwood; and for the ministry of the Human Resources Advisory Committee. Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;

That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Remembering especially Michael, our Presiding Bishop; Carlye, our Bishop; and Elizabeth, our Priest, we pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;

That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Remembering especially Joseph our President, Kamala our Vice-President; and Philip our Governor, we pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;

That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Protect and guide this parish, and the communities in which we live. We remember those celebrating birthdays this week, especially Daniel Mohan and Michael Biskup, and those celebrating anniversaries.

We pray for the homeless and the hungry, that they may be relieved from distress and protected from harm. We pray for the guests, volunteers, staff and Board of Family Promise and for the Church of the Holy Communion Food Pantry. In the Church and in the world, give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

That our works may find favor in your sight.

We pray for all those who have asked for our prayers, and are included on our prayer list. We remember the people of Ukraine and all those suffering the ravages of war. We pray for all victims of gun violence, their families and communities. Give our leaders the wisdom and courage to heal our nation of this epidemic. Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;

That they may be delivered from their distress.

We remember those who have died. Give to the departed eternal rest;

Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

Silence

Concluding Collect

Confession of Sin and Absolution

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you

in thought, word, and deed,

by what we have done,

and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will,

and walk in your ways,

to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Peace

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

The people share a sign of God's peace with one another.

The Holy Communion

The Great Thanksgiving
The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus: (L) # 256

Holy, holy, holy Lord

Pulkingham

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Please stand or kneel as you are able.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

We remember his death

We proclaim his resurrection,

We await his coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with Blessed Mary, St. Andrew, and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever.

Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Fraction Anthem: (H) # Christ our Hurd
S154 Passover

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sanctified for us; therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

The Communion

All who seek God and are drawn to our Lord Jesus Christ are invited to the Lord's Table. If you prefer to receive a blessing, please come forward to the altar rail and cross your arms over your chest.

Communion Hymn: (L) # 178 Sweet Hour of Prayer William Bradbury

Prayer of Spiritual Communion

Please stand or kneel as you are able.

Lord Jesus, we believe that you are truly present in the Sacrament. We love you above all things and we desire to possess you within our souls. When we are unable to receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into our hearts. We embrace you as being already there, and unite ourselves wholly to you. Never permit us to be separated from you. Amen.

Post-Communion Prayer

Almighty and ever living God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and forever. Amen.
